SPEAKERS

Prof Rolf Behrents

Dr. Behrents is presently the Emeritus Professor of Orthodontics at Saint Louis University. In 2013, he was appointed to the post of Editor-in-Chief of the American Journal of Orthodontics and Dentofacial Orthopedics. He received his orthodontic training at Case Western Reserve University in 1975, and his Ph.D. in human growth & development from the University of Michigan in 1984. He has previously served on the faculty at Case Western Reserve University, The University of Tennessee and Baylor College of Dentistry. Dr Behrents has received numerous awards for his research, teaching and service. He has authored and co-authored numerous articles and has lectured widely.

Dr Helen Marchant

Dr Marchant specialised in Special Needs Dentistry in 2005 and has worked in the Special Needs Unit at the Royal Dental Hospital Melbourne for the past 15 years. She has been a visiting specialist at the Peter McCallum Cancer Centre and a demonstrator for the University of Melbourne.

In 2016 Helen opened her own private practice for people with special needs. She has developed a particular interest in treating people with developmental disabilities. Her main teacher has been her autistic son who has just become a teenager and she is relieved that he does not need orthodontic treatment!

Dr Daniela Storino

Dr Storino received her orthodontic training at the Faculty of Orthodontics at University of São Paulo, Brazil in 2004, and her Ph.D there in 2006. She has held the position of Researcher and Coordinator for the Pediatric and Orthodontic Departments there since 2011. She runs a private orthodontic practice, and conducts mini residencies in the use of a variety of orthodontic appliances and devices.
